men are proceeding apace. Howard Messra. Candler and Burton, have reestablished themselves in their lonely concrete domiciles at the entrance to the Valley of Kings, and have made a preliminary survey of the work that must be done before the inner tomb, believed to contain the mummy of the Pharach can be opened.

Two Weeks of Work

The archaeologists estimate that at least a fortnight will be required to cleur away the vast heap of nibble that now shields the king from the outside world. It is possible that a narrow gauge railway loaned by the American Archaeological mission will be used to hasten the work.

miles east of this city. Those arrested were William Lazier, a toolmaker and Charles Tur-William ver, both of Niagara Falls. Thirteen others, one a woman, were questioned at the district attorney's office and released. Lozier and Turver were held on an open charge.

Sheriff Gould received reports from motorists late last night that armed men, garbed in white, were stopping automobiles on the road. The sheriff, with two deputies and three Lockport policemen, investigated. When their car reached the vicinity of a field in which a Kian imitation was purported to be taking place, it was stopped by two white-robed sentinels.

According to the deputies when the dered, one of them was struck by a Klan guard. The sentinel was felled with the butt of a revolver in the hands of one of the investigating party, and both guards were gulfed in the rush of the deputies and policemen from the machine.

Shouts of the guards attracted Kiansmen from the field, and as the theriff started to advance toward the enclosure, the little knot of officers vas surrounded. Gould and his men retreated toward the road and made
